16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me. The Lord said in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.

Luke 10:38-42

FORMED.ORG

When it comes to the life of discipleship, Jesus tells us that love of God must come first. Everything else—including our careers, friends, and even families—must come second. Though this command may sound harsh, it is the path to perfect clarity, and it enables us to love friends and family better.

Visit FORMED.org for daily reflections.
